FUMC Privacy Policy

For each visitor to our Web site, our Web server automatically recognizes the visitor's domain name, IP address, and browser software. It may also recognize their operating system and the site from which the visitor linked to us. It does not harvest email addresses or any personal information. We do not set any cookies.

We use this information only to determine trends in peak activity, determine the number of visitors, track which of our pages they visit, and to ensure our links are working properly. This information is not shared with other organizations or individuals.

Volunteering personal data

You can visit our web site without revealing any personal information. You may voluntarily submit your email address or other personally identifying data to take part in an activity on the site, such as to sign up for a mailing list, asking that an event be published or updating your contact information. We do not share our contact lists with other organizations.

Use By Children

If you are under 13, be sure to obtain your parent's or guardian's permission before you send any personal information (for example, your name, address, e-mail address, etc.) to us or anyone else over the Internet. We encourage parents to get involved with their children's online usage and to be aware of the activities in which they are participating. See www.coppa.org.

Use of Photos

We occasionally include photographs taken by members of church activities on our website. In order to protect the privacy of FUMC members and friends, we generally do not provide personal identification information along with photographs. In cases where identification is warranted, it will only be included with the permission of the person or parent of the person being photographed. If you see a photograph of yourself or your child that you prefer not be included on the site, or if you would like to insure that no photo of your child is used on the site, feel free to contact the Webmaster@myfairviewchurch.org. We'll make the necessary arrangements to comply with your request. All copyrights remain with the original photographer.

Use of Names

The names of members and friends are mentioned on the website, particularly in articles from the FUMC newsletter. In order to protect the privacy of these individuals, personal identification information, such as images, phone number, address, or email can be removed. A [name withheld] notation can be substituted where a person's name would usually appear. If you wish to have your name removed from the website, please contact Webmaster@myfairviewchurch.org.
